A Note From Mrs. Tiefenthal

We had a wonderful Read Across America Week here at Saint John Paul II Elementary! A special thank you to the teachers and committee that planned the themes and events for the week!

March through May is a very busy time for SJPII! We have a lot of events and fun activities coming up that we are looking forward to! More information will be coming!

Rising Kindergarten families will be getting information about Kindergarten screening which will take place at the end of this month.

Important Information

Extended Day News: The week of March 14th will be the last week SJPII will be offering the Extended Day Program.

February payments will be due March 15th. March payments will be due by April 1st.
