A Note From Mrs. Tiefenthal

It was wonderful getting to connect and see so many of you at our SJPII Open House. I love seeing how proud and excited the students are to share our school and their work with their families. It is truly heartwarming! Thank you for making the time to be there.

This week, SJPII students will be celebrating Down Syndrome Awareness Week. Mrs. Shreves will be working on a special project in STEAM with the students. Please refer to the handout going home tomorrow for more information about this week. Students will be signing a school-wide inclusion banner that we will hang in our school.

As a reminder, there is no school this Friday, October 21st for all KCFS students.
