A Note From Mrs. Tiefenthal

Thank you for your flexibility and understanding for dismissal this past week, it is greatly appreciated. We try our best to maintain our normal routine with funeral masses that occur later in the school day.

There will not be an all-school mass this Friday.

Students in Kindergarten through Sixth grade will be attending the Holy Day Mass for the Immaculate Conception this Thursday at 9:00am at Notre Dame Church. We would love for you to join us. Students in 1st through 6th can still wear their gym uniforms this day even with mass.

SJPII PTO will be sending home information this week about our returning SJPII Holiday Shop that will take place next week. We are excited to have this back again!

Progress Reports will be coming home soon.

Important Information

AVI News: Please make sure all lunch accounts are paid in full. Students with negative balances are unable to purchase lunch until their account is paid. For balance inquiries, please contact AVI-Charles Brown at Charles.Brown@avifoodsystems.com. SJPII does not handle the accounts or have access to this information. Thank you!

Health News: Please remember to report your child off for the day by calling the school office at 724-342-2205. Any work requested after 8:30am may not be available for end of the day pickup. If a student is absent for three or more days, they are required to present a doctor's excuse. Again, please review the handbook for more information. Students can return to school once they have been fever free for 24hours without medication.

A special thank you to KCHS Action Club for coming to SJPII this past week to help decorate our school and Christmas tree. If you have not done so, please send in a family ornament to add to our school family Christmas tree. All ornaments are kept to display each school year. Please place your family name and year on the back of the ornament. We have ornaments from past and current students. It is a wonderful tradition we have here at SJPII.
