Week of: Sept. 11-Sept.15

A Message from Mrs. Halicki

As we are implementing a weekly routine, there are just a few reminders for students and parents. This week we will begin to diligently keep track of unexcused tardies and absences. Please read the Student/Parent handbook for expectations of attendance on pages 29-36.

I realize there are circumstances that warrant students to be late. Parents, if a situation arises and you know your child will be late or absent please email or send in a note to Mrs. Nicole Popovitch when your child returns to school.

What's Happening This Week

NWEA testing- Next week (9/11-9/15) all students in grades 7 through 10 will be taking the first NWEA Map Growth Assessment of the year in Reading, Math, Language Usage, and Science. This is the same assessment the students took in grades 7-10 last year. Two other NWEA assessments will be given in January and in May. The assessments will be broken into sections throughout the course of the week. Please see the schedule below. Students will be using their school-issued Chromebooks to take the assessment. Please make sure students bring their school-issued Chromebook and have them fully charged. It is also important and strongly encouraged that students are present during this week, get a great night of rest, and are focused.

9/11-NWEA Reading Assessment

9/12 NWEA Language Usage Assessment

9/13- NWEA Math Assessment

9/15- NWEA Science Assessment

The week of Sept 18th will be make-ups if needed.
